EXPRESS THEIR APPRECIATION

Managers of The Farmers Bank & Trust Co. Well Pleased With C. And T. Show.

Mr. Hendrick was one of the happiest men in Hardinsburg, Saturday, over the interest that was being shown in the Bank's first agricultural show. He was thoroughly elated at the good showing of products raised by this county's farmers, and the farmers took such an active interest in exhibiting their corn and tobacco, that it made the occasion one of mutual encouragement.

The success of the agriculture exhibits depends upon the Breckinridge county farmers altogether, so the members of the Farmers Bank and Trust company deem it a very great pleasure to thank them as well citizens, and solicit their help, their goodwill for the second annual Corn and Tobacco show on November 3, 1920.

Mr. Cleve Hendrick, cashier of the Farmers Bank and Trust Company, Hardinsburg, was so well pleased with the success of the Corn and Tobacco given Saturday, that he wants to publicly acknowledge his appreciation on behalf of the Bank for the magnificent cooperation from the Breckinridge county farmers and citizens who had a part in the show.

The deceased is survived by his father and a sister, Mrs. Vernon Milburn, of Cloverport.

PREMIUMS SOLD FOR KY. ORPHANS

Farmers Bank and Trust Co. Has a Fine Corn and Tobacco Show For County Farmers.

The success of the first annual Corn and Tobacco show held in the Farmers Bank and Trust Company building, in Hardinsburg, Saturday, and given under the auspices of the Bank, was very satisfactory to those in charge. This being the first show the Bank has ever held, the managers were exceptionally pleased with the attendance and with the interest shown by the Breckinridge county farmers, who entered their best samples of corn and tobacco in the contest. The show will be an annual event from now on, and November 3, 1920 is the date set for the second annual show.

The weather was fine Saturday, so there were many spectators at the show. Mr. Cleve Hendrick, the cashier, and his assistants were the friendly hosts of the day, making it quite a happy occasion socially.

The entries of corn and tobacco were displayed in anti-room of the Bank, and it was required that the products entered must be raised in Breckinridge county. The judges were: J. H. Phelon, of Owensboro, for the tobacco, and J. H. Hart and M. L. Loy judged the corn.

In the tobacco entries there were 16 of Burley, 10 of red, and 7 of one sucker; the corn entries included 17 of white corn and 12 of yellow corn.

After the premiums had been awarded, the prize samples were sold at auction and the money donated to the campaign for the Kentucky Children's Home Society. The auction sale amounted to $54.43.

Mr. Calvin Hendrick bought the samples of Burley at 51 cents a pound and sold them to Mr. Dud McGary for 55 cents. The premium corn, one year Boone county white, raised by Len Mattingly was sold to Tom Beard for $5.75. Homer Alexander bought the red tobacco at 21 cents. The rest of the entries were sold in a lump at $4.75 per bushel to Herbert Beard.

SURVEYORS MOVED CAMP TO IRVINGTON

Work Out From There to Hardinsburg. Will Either Camp Here or Hawesville.

The survey party of the Federal Highway reached a point near Weldon, Meade county late Saturday. The camp outfit is being moved to Irvington where the survey will work out from there to Hardinsburg. The next location will either be at Cloverport or Hawesville. In order to center a section of 30 miles or more, the location of the camp is being centered so as to work out both ways.

At Irvington tents had to be erected on a vacant lot to house some of the men. The cold weather makes it disagreeable for some of the older engineers on their survey and most of them are securing rooms where they can do so, and eating at the cook house of the camp.

An effort of the business men and citizens should see that all of the men are properly housed as every man in the party is of good family, including many young men from Breckinridge, Meade and Hancock Counties.

Many disappointments and many surprises are being made as the line advances down the route. All sharp curves are being eliminated and much speculation is being indulged in, as to what route will be taken from Hardinsburg to Cloverport, and from Cloverport to Hawesville.

Cloverport may be entered by the old Murray Bridge in order to cut out the sharp turns at Bishop's corner and the one at Payne's corner. The line out of town will in all probability go to the right of Frank Mattingly's property and miss the old Patterson Hill to the right.

The survey party will be in the vicinity of Cloverport until the latter part of December as the route from Irvington to Hardinsburg and then to Cloverport will take a good deal of time, as in order to shorten the route. Many short cuts will be made. As fast as the line advances all details are being prepared, even photographs of all fills and bridge locations are being made. As soon as the survey is finished the letting of bids will be made for work to begin all along the line, in order to complete the road at an early date.

HUNTERS ARE OUT EARLY IN DAY

Opening Day of Quail Season Finds Many Seeking Desirable Coveys.

Saturday, the opening of the quail and rabbit season in Kentucky, was an ideal hunting day. The morning was "crisp and sunny" as James Whitcomb Riley was wont to describe it, and hunters from this place must have gotten an early start as rifle shots could be heard as men were going to their work.

It is reported that quail is rather plentiful around here. One young man says he has his eye on two or three coveys, but he is very secretive in telling where they may be found.

There were a large number of hunters out on the first day, some in quest of quail, and others liked rabbit hunting better. The season is open until January 1, and there will probably be much ammunition sold between now and then.

SNAP OF WINTER FELT LAST WEEK

Jack Frost Plays Havoc With Garden Truck. Gas Low. Temperature Rises.

Miss Winter made her appearance in this city last Wednesday about noon, creeping in as swiftly and unknowingly as the break of morn. Wednesday morning was as fair and warm as the springtime, and by noon a stiff North wind was biting one's ears so that ear muffs would not have been uncomfortable. But there is law of compensation for everything and the cold weather checked the rise in the Ohio river.

Heavy killing frosts and freezing temperature have prevailed since Wednesday evening. Jack frost played havoc the first evening with all the late garden truck. But since Saturday the temperature has risen, and Indian summer is evidently at hand now.

Typical of cold weather in Cloverport, the gas supply has been weak. However Mr. W. J. Worden, manager of the Cloverport Gas Company, keeps optimistic and assures his patrons that there will be plenty of gas as soon as he succeeds in pumping out the water in the gas well near the Murray Roofing Tile Plant.

TWO OF THE LOESER GEMS FOUND AND IDENTIFIED

Officer Who Sold the Jewels Disappears, Mrs. Frank Ferry Gives Accurate Description of Ring and Lavalier.

The following account of the finding of the Loeser jewels is copied from the St. Petersburg Times of Nov. 4. Mrs. Ferry has been in St. Petersburg for two weeks or more for the purpose of identifying the jewels.

Accused of the theft of $6,000 worth of jewelry belonging to Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Loeser, of Louisville, Ky., who died from asphyxiation here last winter, Deputy Sheriff W. L. Strickland has disappeared. He left a suicide note which was given out yesterday afternoon about 5 o'clock from Justice R. R. Carter's office by the justice and Attorneys Crockett Owen and W. G. King.

Almost simultaneous with news of Strickland's reported death came the news of the recovery of the ring he had sold to Nathan Horowitz and its positive identification by Mrs. Frank O. Ferry, of Cloverport, Ky., as one of the missing Loeser jewels. With the recovery of the ring came a signed statement from Horowitz given in the presence of the chief of police, the mayor, two attorneys and a newspaper reporter. In this statement Horowitz gave sensational testimony concerning Strickland's participation in events of the past few days.

C'PORT LOSES GAME TOO. B.S.

Local "Five" Basketball Team Plays O'boro Business College. Score 20 to 23.

In a game filled with thrills and clean-cut playing, the local town basketball quintet lost to Owensboro Business College, Saturday night by the score of 20 to 23. The game was as close as the final score indicates, and the issue was in doubt until the final minute of play.

The local boys have been seriously handicapped by the lack of a proper place to practice, having been forced to play outdoors during the late cold weather. The Owensboro quintet also suffered somewhat from lack of practice, but their superior weight and familiarity with the floor accounted for their victory.

The lineups were as follows: Cloverport—Pate, Center, Berry and Ferry, forwards, Seaton and Henning, guards. In the second half Wroe substituted for Ferry.

Owensboro—Jenkins, Center, Bondurant and Stengle, forwards, Crow and Dean, guards.

Score: Field goals, Cloverport, Berry, 2; Wroe, 2; Pate, 1. Foul goals Cloverport—Pate, 6; Seaton, 2; Henning, 2. Field goals, Owensboro—Stengle, 4; Jenkins, 3; Bondurant, 2. Foul goals, Owensboro—Jenkins, 4; Bondurant, 1.

All the members of the local five played a fast snappy game, and they could be welded into a strong team with proper practice. Pate especially played a good game against Jenkins, the six foot-four inch, 217 pound center. On the offensive Berry, Wroe and Ferry, played a formidable brand of basketball, and the two guards, Seaton and Henning, were strong on the defensive.

If an inside court can be secured Owensboro will be given a return game Saturday or Saturday week. In that event, games will also be scheduled with other strong teams.

land is dead. Some expressed this same belief while others are inclined to think he is still alive but has disappeared from the community. When he was arrested by Deputy Daugherty last Saturday, Strickland told the officer: "I will end it all if you will only let me get away from my family for a minute. I will never go to Clearwater."

Nathan Horowitz in his signed statement last night, following the recovery from him of the ring and its identification by Mrs. Ferry, told of Strickland's apparent desperation and his threat to kill Tom Parkins and attorney Ben H. Sachs, of Louisville, whose coming here led to the deputy's arrest.

Horowitz Statement.

Horowitz full statement follows: "I bought the ring from W. L. Strickland, the later part of last April. I paid him $275 for it. I paid him by checks and have the cancelled checks.

"Mr. Sachs, the lawyer, and Tom Parkins came to me on Thursday and asked to see the ring. I told them to come back at 8:30 that night and I then phoned to Strickland. They did not come but Strickland did come. He cried and begged me not to produce the diamond ring. He took out his gun, which was empty, and loaded it. He said: 'I am going to fix them tonight.' But the men did not come for the ring.

Sees Friend of Strickland.

"Friday night about 8 o'clock a man went to my store and asked for me. I wasn't there but when I came back I went across the street to see him as my wife said he was waiting for me. He said he was a friend of Strickland's. He told me two warrants were out for Strickland's arrest, one for theft and one for search warrant. He said for me not to produce the ring as it would be the chain gang for Strickland. He asked if I wanted to see Strickland, and I said, 'yes.' He went down the street with his car and I waited outside. The man came back and said Strickland cannot come.

but I should go with him. I got into the car and we drove some place. I don't know where, and picked up Strickland on the way.

Strickland Begs Horowitz.

"When we stopped the car Strickland cried and begged me not to produce the ring. He said he was in trouble already about tax collections and they were looking for him. I told him I wouldn't produce the diamond ring for no kind of money.

"But Saturday morning the deputy sheriff arrived at my store. He said he was after the diamond ring or I would be arrested. My wife went to see Strickland and cried for him to take back the ring and return the money. He said he could not, but he told her not to produce the ring.

Horowitz Sells Store.

"I sold my store on Saturday and planned to get away from this town. Sunday morning at 2:30 a. m., Deputy Daugherty came to my house and arrested me for having stolen goods in my possession. My wife is in confinement and cried for me to get off and I would come to Clearwater. I went up at 12 o'clock Sunday with Daugherty to Clearwater to fix my bond. When I got there we went to Judge Brandon's house and he was out. Then the deputy sheriff told me to get my dinner and wait for the judge. Daugherty saw the judge and said he would turn me loose if I would produce the diamond. He phoned Mr. Sachs and arranged for Mr. Sachs to meet me in St. Petersburg. I came back that night and met Mr. Sachs at the Detroit hotel.

Produces The Ring.

"I told him all this and promised to produce the ring. When the lady with Mr. Sachs described the ring that was missing, I told her it was the ring I had. She described it exactly. I produced the ring Monday from where I had pawned it for $275. Mr. Sachs gave me the money. When I produced the ring the lady recognized it instantly.

(Signed) xz "N. Horowitz."

Had Ring Twenty Years.

The ring which Mrs. Ferry identified as one which had belonged to Mrs. Loeser for 20 years, is a round pan dinner ring said by Mr. Sachs, to be worth about $1,000. It has a cluster of diamonds about the size of a nickle. In the center is a diamond of a half carat, around this are several diamonds of about one-fourth carat, while around the outer edge are 12 smaller diamonds. There are 20 jewels in all. The setting is an old fashioned filigree, unique in design and character.

This ring, Mrs. Ferry says, was the most distinctive piece her aunt possessed. In her list of the $6,000 worth of missing jewelry she described this particular ring most accurately. Mrs. Ferry's home is at Cloverport, Ky., where her aunt, Mrs. Loeser had resided a great deal of the time. She says she knows intimately every piece of jewelry relative owned.

Louisville Lawyer Here.

Ren H. Sachs, the Louisville attorney and Exalted Ruler of the Elks lodge, came here last Thursday morning immediately action began to occur in the case. Mr. Sachs had been working on the case since last winter when he came here at the time of the Loesers' sudden death. The affidavit charging Strickland with the theft was sworn out by Mrs. Ferry and was served on him Saturday morning. Mr. Sachs returns to Louisville today where he is a candidate at the polls for the legislature though he will not arrive in time for the election. It is likely Mrs. Ferry will go also.

Causes Much Comment.

News of Deputy Strickland's reported suicide spread over town rapidly last night and was the subject of excited comment everywhere and various expressions of opinion. Last night Sheriff Marvel Whitehurst, Deputies J. O. Daugherty, G. Powledge, Assistant Postmaster L. N. Hendry and Policeman E. W. Bryn, all of Clearwater, came down in regard to the case and because of the reported suicide of Strickland.

Wanted To Save His Family.

W. L. Strickland's statement which follows below, gives a prime motive for his alleged act, the fact that he has decided it best to kill himself rather than bring disgrace on his family by killing others whom he professes to wish to eliminate from his life. Strickland is 32 years old. He has a wife and one child. He came to this city seven years ago from Austin, Ga. He was appointed deputy sheriff about two years ago. Prior to that he was constable. His statement follows:

"Dear Bob:-
"I know you will be surprised when you find this. But Bob I can't stand it any longer. I thought I would kill Tom P. before this but on my family & your account I decided not to do that, for he will get what is coming to him, he is the lowest man on earth and calls his self a Elk. Bob this is an awful deed to commit, but I have decided it best instead of killing old Parkins.

Blames It On Others.

"And Bob if any body have got them diamonds it is Harris or Endicott for they was the first people there and you know that they hate you & me.

"I am being sent to hell for nothing but with all of these crooks against me they is nothing left to do I am tired of living.

"Bob if I had taken bribes like the rest of the gang I would be all O. K. but they is a true God that will take care of the bunch. Bob please look after my family the best you can and I know that you will, and please help Rosa to collect all that is due me on the Books.

Declares He's Innocent.

"Bob I am not guilty and I want you to know it, for I know that you are strait, but they will do you the same way if they can.

"Bob we have had some good times together and some bad ones but it is all over now I hope you will get along O. K. and we will meet in the other world. Bob this is hard but I can't stand it any longer. I feel awful bad and I must end it all.

"Bob you won't never see my body for it will never be found the reason of this I don't want my wife or Margaret to see it for it is hard enough for them to give me up. Bob please look after them for they will need it.

"Strick.

"P. S.-Bob watch this police dept. for they will do any thing they can against you and Bob please resign your office as soon as you can and don't never try to hold another political job for you can't hold it if you are not crooked and that is true. Bob if I had money I could show the people that I was strait but they have got the money and I haven't so Bob try to get everything straitened out on my kids account.

Mrs. Loeser $1,000 Lavalier is Found Too.

In a later edition of the Times on Nov. 8, it gives an account of the finding of the $1,000 lavalier: Although H. B. Smitz offered no objections to the delivery of the $1,800 diamond set lavalier, which he bought from Noel A. Mitchell, acting as the agent of W. L. Strickland, the missing deputy sheriff, the usual legal process will be followed before the jewelry is given to Ben H. Sachs, attorney for the estate of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Loeser, from whose room it was stolen after their death from asphyziation in a southside home last January.

Attorney Sachs gave bond yesterday in the sum of $2,000 and a replevin writ was issued by Clerk J. N. Brown, of the circuit court. This writ was served on the bank, where the lavalier was held in escrow, Smitz having paid but $500 of the $800 purchase price.

Offered No Objections.

Mr. Smitz notified the bank that he offered no objections to the legal process and the lavalier was delivered to Deputy Sheriff Tom Parkins. He has placed the jewelry in a safety deposit box where it will be kept for three days. This is the requirement of the law, to allow time for any suit to replevin the lavalier.

Mrs. Frank Ferry, niece of Mrs. Loeser, who positively identified the lavalier, declared that the jeweler who set the stones in it is still living and that he can also identify it as having been the property of her aunt. Mrs. Ferry and Attorney Sachs will likely remain in the city until the lavalier is delivered to them at the expiration of three days, but their plans are undetermined and they may be called back to Louisville before that date.

Daugherty Has "Dope."

There were no new developments yesterday in the matter of the disappearance of Deputy Sheriff Strickland. Deputy Sheriff Daugherty was quoted yesterday as having been told by Strickland much "inside dope" on the situation in St. Petersburg.

Strickland is said to have told Daugherty last Saturday: "I won't see you any more. I want to tell you some things about local conditions." Daugherty is quoted as having claimed to have received from Strickland information bearing on crooks who operated here last winter and who may attempt to operate here this winter. Daugherty is said to have taken notes on the information furnished by Strickland and to have asked Sheriff Whitehurst to assign him to duty in this end of the county. No announcement has been made by the sheriff.

No further rumors of the whereabouts of the missing deputy were heard yesterday. It continues to be generally accepted that he has not killed himself, but has disappeared. Whether he will be apprehended on a new charge or be allowed to go unsought until the date set for his trial

EDUCATION FOR WORK OR EDUCATION FOR "SETTIN'?"

Here is a little story in a newspaper about a lady who is asking a little colored girl if the girl's big sister can be had to help with some work. "No'm," says the little daisy, "Lucene am eddicated now. She granulated las' week. She do'n' w'ok no mo' sence she's eddicated. She jess sets, an' sets, an' sets. Dat's all she does."

That is the kind of "eddication" too many daries—and too many white folks—have had in the past, and the kind too many desire now. Whatever of "culture" or "accomplishment" any person may have, that person is not truly educated if he does not know how to do something useful in and for the world. Nor is his education complete if he has not the desire as well as the ability to do something in and for the world. The education that leads to "jess settin'," either in practice or in desire, is a false education and one destructive of body and soul.

Educate your children by teaching them how to do something well and by inspiring them to desire to do it. So shall they arise and call you blessed. —Southern Agriculturist.

CORN, TOBACCO AND POTATO SHOW.

The Bank of Hardinsburg & Trust Company or, as it is becoming more familiarly called, "The Bank that makes you feel at home," will have its annual Corn, Tobacco and Potato show on Saturday, November 22nd.

Two years have elapsed since the Bank has had its annual show, on account of the war, and this year the directors, the cashier, Mr. D. D. Dowell, and all the other employees of this concern are putting renewed interest and zeal into the affair to make it the success it has always been, if not even greater.

Over a hundred dollars in premiums will be given away. We can imagine that every farmer in Breckinridge county who has seen the list of premiums, has already picked his prize bunch of tobacco, those ears of corn that are the most perfectly filled out, and some of his largest and prettiest Irish and sweet potatoes. And maybe some have entered theirs before now.

We sometimes wonder of capital isn't in the wrong, and again we wonder if labor doesn't want too much. But we find there is good and bad in both of them. For instance here is an incident where labor struck and humanity was befriended:

"Striking butchers in Chicago, to prove that some of their employers are profiteering, opened a large retail shop and sold porterhouse steak at 18 cents a pound, veal chops at 16 cents, and hamburger steak at 10 cents a pound, and said they were making a fair profit on their sales."

England had 8,000 women to enlist in the Government's land army. After November 30, the Government withdraws its control, but the farmettes refuse to be demobilized. It looks like some women would rather do most anything in preference to putting three meals a day on the table.

Only thirty more shopping days until Christmas. Does it make you panic-stricken?

The Cloverport Loose Leaf Warehouse opens December 1. This is going to be one of the largest business concerns in Breckinridge county before we know it. Why? Because the company believes in advertising, and that's the main road to success in this generation.

To offer a thanksgiving simply because we have made money is a selfish part of the program.—Silent Partner.

We only had a fleeting glimpse of the NC-4, but that was enough for us to boast that we have seen it.

Have you started making an inventory of the things for which you have to be thankful?

FARM AND STOCK

Farmers all happy and busy. The fine weather puts new life and pep in them and they are rushing things while they can. Another thing that makes them feel good is the price they are getting for this year's crop of tobacco up to $35 round for Burley is pretty good, but it is going to be better when the Loose Leaf houses open and the buyers get a chance at it.

Don't fail to attend John Blythe's sale, Wednesday, November 26, on the pike. He's closing out his stock, farm implements and other things.

Five dollars and seventy-five cents for one ear of corn is a record price. Tom Beard never lets a good thing pass in his line.

Mr. John Phelon says the show of tobacco and corn at The Farmers Bank and Trust Company was as fine products as he ever saw raised in any county.

Following farmers have sold their crops of tobacco—Elmer Sturgeon, 3,000 pounds new Burley at $27.50 round; Stillwell and Tinius, 6,000 pounds at $30 round; Joe Bishop his old crop of one sucker at $15 round; J. V. Hinton, 6,000 pounds one sucker at $20 round.

Charles Bowman has bought the George Monarch farm of 93 acres at $70 per acre.

P. D. Wethington, Hardinsburg, shipped 2 Poland China gilts to H. E. Peterson, Lovett, Ky., for $100 cash. Our farmers are making a mistake in letting this fine stock leave the county. It is worth as much here or more than it is in other counties. We need more breeders of pure bred stock.

The Woosley sale was very well attended last Wednesday. Prices were a little draggy and not up to their value. However, Mr. Woosley was very well pleased with the prices. One pair good mules sold for $475, to Harry Norton. Jersey cows sold from $50 to $75. Good binder $75 and good as new wheat drill for $75. Mr. Woosley withdrew several head of mules and cows on account of low price.

Remember the Bank of Hardinsburg & Trust Company has a tobacco show next Saturday.

S. H. Robbins will have a big sale at his farm near Ammons, Saturday, Dec. 20. Mr. Robbins has bought a farm near Henryville, Ind., and will move to it the first of the year. Mr. Robbins is a mighty good citizen and his place in that community will be hard to fill. He leaves on account of bad health.

G. W. StClair sold his 7 acre crop of Burley weighing 7,000 lbs., @ $30 round. J. D. Harper sold his crop of 3,500 lbs. of Burley to Morris Alexander, at $23 round. S. R. Hall had 2 acres Burley weighing 3,030 pounds which he sold to Morris Alexander at $30 round.

Lem Mattingly, whose farm lies partly on a creek bottom, was one of the flood sufferers. Mr. Mattingly had 20 acres of corn. He gathered 240 bushels from 2 acres; out of the remaining 18 acres, ten acres was overflooded. The corn that was inundated, Mr. Mattingly will use to fatten his hogs, so he will not suffer a total loss of his crop. Mr. Mattingly produced the ear of corn that sold for $5.75. He expected to make over 2,000 bushels on the 20 acres.

IN MEMORIAM

Of Pauline Anthony Willoughby, who died July 15, 1919.
In the lonely grave she sleeps,
Far beneath the sacred sod;
The angels watch her peaceful grave,
While her soul has gone to God.

Many now do feel her loss,
As hot tears from our eyelids fall;
Earth has lost a beautiful life,
While heaven had gained a loving soul.

Rest in peace, my dear sweet sister,
Four long lonely months have passed away;

But your face is yet before me,
And your voice like birds at break of day.

One by one sweet ones are taken,
Just as roses bloom to fall;
Then I kindly stop remembering,
Pain and sadness comes to all.

Since you've gone, the home is lonely,
For your dear face was like the sun;
Glad our hearts will be to meet you,
When the Father bids us come.

For a face we loved is gone forever,
And a happy voice is stilled;
A place in Kirk now vacant,
That no one else can ever fill.
Written by her sister, Mrs. Cordelia Anthony Dooley.

SCHOOL NEWS AND VIEWS

By J. Raleigh Meador, Superintendent

Teachers' Association will be held at the following places on the dates given: Union Star, November 25; Garfield, November 29; McDaniels, December 6, Glen Dean, December 13, and Hardinsburg, December 20.

The following extract from the school law explains the duty of teachers relative to these associations: "Every teacher shall attend at least the meeting held in the magisterial district in which he shall teach, and upon failure to do so, shall teach an additional day during the school month following such failure unless he shall satisfy the county superintendent that such failure was caused by sickness or other actual disability."

A number of schools have succeeded in raising their quotas for the building fund of the Kentucky Children's Home Society. Several schools in which the quotas have been raised have not yet reported to me. The following amounts have been turned in by the teachers named:

W. G. Macy, $16.80; C. M. Payne, $11.; Jesse Brunnington, $10.; Bessie Downs, $10.; Noah Finley, $8.; A. O. Macy, $8.; Jesse Walls, $10.; C. O. Skillman, $11.85; Theresa Rowland, $16.10; Ruth Ramsey, $3.; Mrs. W. C. Pate, $8.; O. L. Kelm, $12.; Mrs. C. Stewart, $10.; Mrs. O. L. Kelm, $10.; Merton Cart $13.; Clyde Severs, $5.; Mayme Cart, $10.; Eliza Meador, $20.; Ruth Wegenast, $10.; Mrs. Alvah Beauchamp, $32.80; Everett Spencer, $15.; Jas. W. Harrell, $15.; Florence Rhodes, $3.55; Alma Cannon, $6.; and Asa Chancellor, $10. A total of $283.10.

In addition to the above the ladies committee of Hardinsburg has returned in $93.37 making a total to date of $376.47. The quota for Breckinridge county was fixed at $2,000; and unless we make a better showing in the next week it is evident that we shall come short of our allotment. The $11.00 credited above to C. M. Payne, the teacher at Harned, was turned in by Mrs. J. M. Crume, and I have not been advised whether the amount was raised by the school or by the ladies of Harned.

LESS LEAF HELD THAN LAST YEAR.

Less leaf tobacco was held by manufacturers and dealers October 1, 1919, than the corresponding month a year ago, according to the quarterly report of the Census Bureau, made public in compliance with the Cantrell law.

The first day of this month the aggregate amount of leaf tobacco in the hands of the manufacturers and dealers was 1,263,769,070 pounds as against 1,644,883,788 pounds October 1, 1918; 1,400,963,823 pounds July 1, 1919, and 1,627,233,876 pounds April 1, this year.

With respect to the burley type of much interest to Kentucky growers 39,753,511 more pounds were held by manufacturers and dealers October 1, last than the first of October a year ago. October 1, of this year there were 229,890,560 pounds of burley on hand as compared with 190,137,019 pounds October 1, 1918; 287,564,917 pounds July 1, 1919, and 333,912,305 pounds on April 1, last.

Of the dark district of Kentucky and Tennessee the report shows the following total:

Two hundred and twenty-two million, four hundred and ninety-nine thousand, three hundred and fourteen pounds. October 1, 1919; 315,854,704 pounds October 1, 1918; 322,313,696 pounds July 1, 1919, and 394,027,730 pounds April 1, this year.

OLD FASHIONED PUMPKIN CORN BREAD RECIPE.

1 cup mashed pumpkin, 1 cup milk, 1 cup cornmeal, 1/4 cup flour, 1 egg, 4 teaspoons baking powder, 1 teaspoon salt, 2 tablespoon melted fat.

Mix in order given. Pour in greased baking pan and bake 40 minutes in a hot oven. Cut in squares, and serve hot.

Recipes for a number of dishes in which pumpkin is prepared as a winter vegetable follow:

To prepare the pumpkin, cut open, remove seeds and stringy portion, and cut into pieces of convenient size for cooking. One of the most satisfactory method of cooking pumpkin is by steaming. Remove the skin, place in a steamer over boiling water, and steam until the pieces are tender. Pumpkin prepared in this way is less watery than the boiled pumpkin.

Lumber Cut of 1918.

The lumber cut of the United States in 1918 was 29,302,020,000 feet, as reported to the forest service up to June 15 by 14,753 mills. The complete total cut is 31,890,454,000 feet, based on the assumed operations of 22,546 mills. The computed cut in 1918 is 11 per cent smaller than the computed production in 1917.

A comparison of the computed cut of several of the larger general producing regions in 1918 with the figures for the preceding year shows a smaller output by approximately 20 per cent in the yellow-pine group of states, a decrease of 19 per cent in the North Carolina pine group and of 9 per cent in the Lake states. An increased cut of 2 per cent is noted for Oregon and Washington.

COUNTY HEALTH WORK BUREAU

Created By the State Board of Health. To Give $5,000 Annually.

Because of the desire among a number of counties to maintain efficient, full-time Health Officers, the Kentucky State Board of Health has created a Bureau of County Health Work, whose activities will be solely devoted to assisting in financing and promoting the work of such departments.

Dr. P. W. Covington, of the International Health Board, has been loaned to the State for the purpose of assuming the Directorship of the Bureau.

In the beginning a large part of his time will be devoted to assisting county health authorities in organizing full-time health departments.

Dr. Covington brings to the State, wide experience in such work, having spent the last ten years in organizing county health departments throughout the South, as well as in some of the foreign countries.

The State Board of Health is now in position to give $5,000.00 annually to the first five counties making a like appropriation. The $10,000.00 thus provides for, in each of the five counties, to be used in employing a physician, trained in public health work, and an adequate number of assistants, such as public health nurses, microscopists and sanitary inspectors, who will devote their entire time to the prevention of sickness within the county.

The State Board of Health expects to show at the end of the first year's work such a decrease in the death rate from preventable diseases, in the five counties selected, as will create a desire among a large number of counties for such departments, by which time it is hoped that such arrangements will have been made as will enable the Board to financially cooperate with most of the counties or groups of counties in the State.

KENTUCKY--SOUTHERN OIL COMPANY

Incorporated

1705 INTER SOUTHERN BUILDING
LOUISVILLE, KENTUCKY

To the people of Breckinridge County and elsewhere:

We invite you to join with us in an honest oil, enterprise. This company has only $25,000 authorized capital, which means that when we bring in one well of moderate production its stock will be worth par or better.

No one connected with the company draws a salary. Our expenses are very low.

We want just a few thousand dollars for development purposes. We have some of the most promising leases in BARREN COUNTY, KY., with good producing wells in every direction from them. They are in proven oil structure—not untried territory. Near pipe-line and ready market.

The quotation from letter given below is from one of the best oil authorities in Kentucky. It shows how our leases are regarded. Our prospects for striking oil are considered about 9 out of 10.

We will issue gold notes due two years after date, in denominations of $50 to $500, bearing interest at 8 per cent and in addition will give with out extra charge, our stock to the amount of each note purchased.

Holders thus have a fixed charge against the company, and in addition, have the stock to insure full participation in such profits as may be earned.

The Secretary-Treasurer, who is also Manager, is a native of Breckinridge county and will treat you as a blood relative.

We will furnish bank references on application. No fairer oil opportunity could be offered. We honestly believe that a little money invested with us will return substantial gains.

The organizers have their money in the game and must win in order to realize gain. Their gain is stockholders' gain. There is no chance for stock-jobbing in such a small company.

Further particulars furnished when desired.

This offer, which is a practical guaranty against loss, is good for a limited time only.

"MR. R. M. HAYES,
"Louisville, Ky.

"Have your letter in answer to mine, with reference to possible sale Furlong lease. Do not know just what I can get for this lease, but a large advance over what you paid. I want to be fair with you and give you the facts. Some oil men and geologists have been scouting in that section, they found I took this lease from land owner and came to me to buy it. I told them I had sold it, but might buy it back. I found they think it the center of a great oil pool. I would not make a price on my 40-acre lease adjoining the Furlong. I think you have the best lease in that section—may be another 'Jewell' or 'Moulder'."

New York Merchant Has Driver Who Knows Business Methods and Aids His Employer.

"I don't believe in having too many carefully worked-out methods for preventing errors in an organization," writes L. Wertheimer in System, the magazine of business. Mr. Wertheimer is president of a concern which operates five big department stores in the northern part of New York city. He goes on to tell the plan he uses:

"One of the best checks that I get on my business is through my chauffeur. I have to keep a machine at all all the time, so that I can get from store to store without delay. My driver is not simply a driver; he is a high-grade man who knows a good deal about my ideas of merchandising—a man who conceivably may some day be manager of one of my stores."

"While he is waiting for me he does not simply sit outside in the machine. He wanders around the store, looking at displays, noticing how salesgirls deal with customers, whether our prices are by chance higher on this item or on that than they should be. Every morning his written observations are placed on my desk; from them I have time and again gleaned pieces of information that made a big difference in the profits of the store."

RED TAPE FINALLY UNWOUND

For a Time It Had Sergt. Hayes Tied Up, But He Came Out a Lieutenant.

Once upon a time there was a man who "fired" his employees that he might have the pleasure of hiring them over again. That would seem to be somewhat the way with the marine corps. It "fired" its men that the government may do them special honor.

Sergt. Edgar Hayes, a red-blooded patriot of the marine corps, overheard an aspersion upon the uniform of his service. Sergeant Hayes promptly hit the speaker in the nose. The marine corps sat upon his case in solemn court-martial, and after much deliberation dismissed Sergeant Hayes from the service, thus creating civil disabilities. The case later was reviewed by the president, who pardoned Hayes and restored him to citizenship. Hayes has now been restored to the service and created a first lieutenant, an act of congress having empowered the president to make the appointment.

It is a roundabout way of doing a man honor. And it shows something wrong with the system. We wonder what the dignified gentlemen of the court-martial would have done if it had been proved that Sergeant Hayes, now Lieutenant Hayes, having overheard an aspersion upon his honorable service, had condoned it by inaction.—Cincinnati Times-Star.

DAUGHTER HAD TO QUIT WORK MOTHER SAYS

Inactivity Would Have Lasted Longer, Had Not Trutona Brought Aid.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 17, 1919.—Because it has relieved her daughter of troubles which kept her from work for five long months, Mrs. Josephine Brown, a well known Louisville woman of 721 Washington street recently made the following interesting statement regarding Trutona, the perfect tonic:

"My daughter had been suffering with stomach trouble and nervousness for several months. In fact, the trouble became so severe that she couldn't work for five months. It seemed that everything she ate would sour in her stomach, causing gas formations and a bloated feeling. The gas seemed to form around her heart causing her much pain.

"My daughter's nerves were so unstrung that she could hardly sleep at night and she would get up in the mornings almost as tired as when she went to bed. But Trutona has steadied her nerves and she's at last able to rest well at night. This medicine has relieved her of the indigestion, too, and her bowels are regular now. We think Trutona is a great medicine."

Trutona is now being introduced and explained in Cloverport, at Wedding's Drug Store, in Hardinsburg, at Lex's Pharmacy, in Irvington, at Park's Pharmacy.

A Rat That Didn't Smell After Being Dead For 3 Months.

"I swear it was dead at least 3 months," said James Sykes, Butcher, Westfield, N. J. "We saw this rat every day. Put a cake of RAT-SNAP behind a barrel. Months later my wife asked about the rat. Remembered the barrel, looked behind it. There was the rat—dead, not the slightest odor." Three sizes, 25c, 50c, $1.00. Sold and guaranteed by Conrad Payne & Co., Cloverport, E. A. Hardesty, Stephensonport, and B. F. Beard & Co., Hardinsburg.

FOR STOUT FIGURE FINAL CROP REPORT OF SEASON

Accordion Pleating Treatment of Silk and Wool Effective.

Important Feature to Be Avoided Is a Waistline Too Pronounced or Extremely Fitted.

Accordion pleating is used more this season than at any time in recent years. This treatment is given to silk and wool materials of all kinds, and unquestionably it is very effective. Unfortunately, accordion pleating is not especially serviceable for an entire skirt, but when front and sides only are pleated, or when, as in the dress shown in the sketch, a long tunic protects the pleating at the back of the skirt, it is very satisfactory.

The dress sketched is a model that may be used for a stout figure. It is of dark brown satin trimmed in gold embroidery and with tunic and sleeves faced with tan-colored satin. The tunic is long at sides and back and the waistline is merely indicated by the loosely draped girdle of self fabric. In developing garments for the stout figure the important thing to be considered is avoidance of a too-pronounced waistline. Extremely fitted effects are never good, and success in designing clothes for the stout figure has been arrived at by a recognition of this fact.

The frock sketched requires merely a fur neckpiece and a smart hat to complete a modish street outfit for the autumn days.

The style range in furs is quite as elastic as in other items of apparel. While large animal and shaped scarfs and clever little coats and dolmans are good, the small neckpieces brought out in the spring have not lost caste. Sable, mink and marten collars of one, two or three skins are decidedly chic and for fall and early winter will be much worn.

GRASS SUBSTITUTE FOR CHICKENS.

A reasonable supply of fresh green feed is almost as necessary as grain for chicks if they are to develop properly. If allowed liberty they will obtain much of it for themselves, but if kept in confinement or in quarters where green feed is not abundant, it should be supplied them regularly. Lawn grass, beet tops, cabbage, and lettuce make excellent feeds. When chicks are confined to brood coops with runs, they should be placed on ground where the grass is green and tender, and as fast as it is eaten off, the coop and run should be moved to a place where the grass is plentiful.

SMALL FORTUNE FROM TOBACCO CROP.

It appears that William Lee Nutter, a thrifty young farmer of Scott county, Ky., will make a small fortune on his tobacco crop this season.

He has grown about 50,000 pounds, and has sold it to the Independent Tobacco Warehouse Company, of Lexington for 85 cents per pound, and one-half of the profits should it sell for more.

The tobacco company sent Mr. Nutter a check for $5,000 to secure the trade.—Farmers Home Journal.

Past Year Has Been Unfavorable. Wheat Acreage is Cut Fifty Per Cent.

This is the last crop report of the season 1919 issued by this department, and gives the final estimates on yield of corn and tobacco neither of which crops are entirely housed as yet. This crop season has been very unfavorable, with the extreme drouth throughout the summer months and the continued rains throughout the fall months and much complaint is voiced of corn damaging in the shock.

The prospects for the wheat crop of 1920 in this state are not good. The anticipated acreage is exceptionally small, the same showing at 57 per cent which, compared with the 114 per cent acreage sown in 1918 shows the crop has been cut 50 per cent. The condition of wheat at this time is given at 72 per cent. Only about 50 per cent of the acreage planned was reported sown up to November 1.

The acreage of rye that is being sown is also lower than last year, the same being 88 per cent, with condition showing at 96 per cent.

Barley is sown in but few communities, and the very few reports coming to this office show the acreage at 92 per cent with condition 96 per cent.

Final estimate on the corn crop shows an average yield of 23.3-10 bu. per acre, which is two bushels per acre less than last year. This would indicate a production of something over 78,000,000 bushels for the year. The estimate on Burley tobacco in final yield is 716 pounds per acre, while dark tobacco is estimated at 835 pounds per acre. This is lighter in both districts than last year.

A light crop of potatoes is also reported. The yield as a state average is given at 68 bushels per acre of the second crop of Irish potatoes, and 89 bushels per acre of sweet potatoes.

Pastures have greatly improved and show a condition of 94 per cent which is an exceptional condition for this time of the year. All classes of live stock are in good condition, and the number on hand as compared with an average year show as follows:

Horses number on hand 91 per cent condition 92 per cent.

Cattle, number on hand 88 per cent, condition 92 per cent.

Hogs, number on hand 87 per cent, condition 93 per cent.

Sheep, number on hand 82 per cent, condition 94 per cent.

Taken as a whole, the average yields for this year have been cut down, which is attributed to the unseasonable crop year. Fall work is greatly delayed on account of continued rains, and a great deal of complaint comes in regard to the corn and fodder being damaged in the shock. Taking into consideration the extreme drouth during the growing season, and excessive rains during the maturing season all crops are cut both as to quantity and quality.

OVER 43,000 PAY TAX ON INCOMES IN OLD KENTUCKY

Washington.—Preliminary figures from the Statistical Division of the Internal Revenue Department, dealing with income tax returns for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1918, show that for Kentucky the personal returns made on incomes of less than $3,000, 20,718, and the number of corporation income returns for the State was 3,463. These figures indicate the amount of tax assessed under the acts of August 5, 1909, October 3, 1913, September 8, 1916, March 3, 1917, and October 3, 1918, thus bringing the collections up to a point where they include the new income tax made as a result of war conditions.

The report shows that the number of returns on excess profits assessed on individuals for Kentucky was 181, the number on excess profits assessed on corporations was 1,727, and the number on excess profits assessed on partnership was 427.

KENTUCKY LEGIONARIES OPEN WAR ON I. W. W.; MOORMAN TO RETIRE.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 14.—Kentucky legionaries, returning from the Minneapolis American Legion convention, declare an uncompromising war on the radicals in this state.

Henry DeHaven Moorman, commander of the department of Kentucky, announced he would retire as he holds a political position in Breckinridge county. He said "the cowardly assassination of our comrades in Washington in the Armistice Day parade consecrates us forever to a work of seeking out and deporting I. W. W.'s and every other undesirable alien."

The Kentucky delegates were immensely pleased he said, at the location of the national headquarters at Indianapolis.

ODD USE OF GRAVITY MADE IN NEW REMINDER CLOCK.

Reminder clocks have long proved themselves useful to business and professional men. A new device of this order, in which gravity is put to a novel use, is illustrated in Popular Mechanics for December. At the base of the case is a metal cup in which are many polished steel balls. Around the dial are 48 holes, one for each quarter hour. So, when the appointments for the next 12 hours are made, the owner of the clock places a steel ball in each appropriate hole. At each appointed minute a ball rolls to the base of the clock, where it makes an electric contact and rings a bell or buzzer.

SOME PEOPLE think ADVERTISING is simply SPENDING MONEY BUT THE wise man knows IT'S the surest way to make more. THE ONLY problem is WHAT MEDIUM to use. CIRCULARS and hand-bills COST A LOT of money BUT YOU give them away SO NOBODY wants them ON THEIR front porches NOR IN their morning mail. THE SUBSCRIBER PAYS REAL money FOR HIS newspaper AND THAT'S why he values it MORE HIGHLY THAN A circular. HE BRINGS his paper home SO THAT every member OF THE family CAN READ and enjoy its BREEZY, up-to-the-minute news AND PROFIT by heeding THE HOME-TOWN merchants' BID FOR their trade. AND THAT'S a good reason FOR ADVERTISING IN A newspaper. AND NOT only that BUT THE merchant using hand-bills AND CIRCULARS hopes FOR TEN readers TO THE hundred bills, IF WILLIE delivers the 100. WHEREAS the newspaper advertiser IS SURE OF at least FOUR READERS TO EVERY COPY of the paper AND THEY all read and heed HIS ADS. AND THAT'S why he LOOKS pleasant AND GROWS fat in the BANK ACCOUNT. PAYS TO STAY IN SCHOOL

The value of staying at school is stated in dollars and cents in figures recently compiled by the bureau of education and distributed to boys and girls throughout the country by the children's bureau.

From a study of a large number of actual cases it has been found that at twenty-five years of age the boy who remained in school until he was eighteen had received $2,000 more salary than the boy who left school at fourteen, and that the better-educated youth was then receiving more than $900 a year more in pay.

"This is equivalent to an investment of $18,000 at 5 per cent," the statement said. "Can a boy increase his capital as fast in any other way?"

"From this time on the salary of the better-educated boy will rise still more rapidly, while the earnings of the boy who left school at fourteen will increase but little."

REGARD A CHILD'S POSSESSIONS

By Helena Wilson.

It is no wonder that during infancy and early childhood life's lessons are so difficult for the small beginners when the laws which govern them must seem to him just or unjust, consistent or inconsistent according to the knowledge or the caprice of the adult administering them.

One of the first lessons which the little child should learn is the proper care of his own possessions and respect for those of others, and a mother has the first opportunity to inculcate this important life lesson.

Since one of the strongest instincts of the child is to imitate, there seems no more logical way to teach this lesson than by example. If a mother teaches her child not to touch the articles on her desk or dressing table without her permission, then has she the right to dispose of his toys without her permission?

The writer recalls an instance where a mother secretly put away a doll which had been given to her little girl, and, for no reason except that the child already had a number of dolls and this particular one was "too beautifully dressed to be played with until the child was older."

Another common way of disregarding children's rights is to force them to give up some new or much-prized possession. For example, a little girl of six, who was delighted with the gift of a doll's fan, was obliged by her mother to hand it to her screaming baby in order to quiet him. In his excitement he soon crushed the tiny toy, his screams increased, and his little sister was broken-hearted! Nor had the unjust and short-sighted mother "saved the scene" which she had hoped to avert.

In each of these cases the child should have been consulted and her permission given before the mother disposed of the plaything. In this way the mother could have explained the reason for her own action, and the child in her turn, would have had an opportunity of expressing herself, a habit which should be encouraged. Then, too, personal responsibility for her possessions and the recognition of the right of ownership would have emphasized the difference between "mine" and "thine."

There is no better way to create habits of orderliness and a sense of responsibility than by giving the child a place for keeping his playthings and then allowing him full control of these possessions.

Show him how to use his books, how to take care of his toys, how to protect his pets, and then see to it that he has a shelf, a small bookcase for his books, a play corner for his toys, and an appropriate home for his pets.

After playtime require him to put away whatever he has been using, and let him understand the necessity for regular attention to his pets.

Such training will of necessity react upon his character since possession entails responsibility. Ownership also teaches generosity, for without possessions how can a child learn to share?

It may not be out of place in advising parents to respect their children's possessions to add a warning on behalf of the children. Do not surround them with numberless ready-made toys. Give them blocks, boards, nails, a few tools, hammers, saws, planes, spools, scissors, thread, cloth, dolls, paper, crayons, clay, sand, and books. They will get more happiness from these possessions of constructive possibilities than from all the finished toys of the highest toy shops in the land.

"Childhood has its own way of seeing, thinking, and feeling, and nothing is more foolish than to try to substitute our own for them."

Respect your child's right to his possessions and he will learn to respect the rights of others, and with such recognition, there will be no fear for the outcome of his place in society. Help to reach all the parents of the country by cutting this out and passing it on to a friend.

TEACHERS HUMAN—NEED MORE PAY

Supt. Meador Addresses Teachers Meeting Here. Wants Them Paid Higher Salaries.

The teachers meeting of the 2nd, Division met at Cloverport Saturday, Nov. 15th. The usual subjects were discussed and resolutions formed and adopted.

The slogan of the meeting was, as has been since The Dark Ages, making teaching a profession and higher salaries. Mr. Meador, in his splendid address made clear the reason why teaching should be made a profession. He also made the broad assertion that teachers are "human," and dared at his own peril, to hint that they should be paid higher salaries.

A splendid musical program was rendered by the Cloverport High school, conducted by Miss Tula Babage.

THIRTY-SIX FRUIT VARIETIES FROM ONE OLD APPLE TREE.

An old back-yard apple tree in an Ohio city is yielding, in rotation, crops of apples of the extra-early, early, medium-early, fall, and winter varieties, besides seven kinds of pears—a total of 36 varieties of fruit, according to the December Popular Mechanic Magazine. The tree was thought to be dead when the horticulturist began his experiments. Skillful and studied grafting, of course, accomplished the seeming miracle. He declares that yielding several varieties of fruit at different seasons makes a healthier tree than the usual production of a heavy crop all in one season.

FOREIGN CHRISTIANS MAKE LARGE GIFT.

Baptist Converts in All Parts of World Will Have Part in Denominational Drive.

On all foreign mission fields occupied by the Southern Baptist Convention the native Christians are responding generously to the Baptist 75 Million Campaign, and will contribute considerably more than $1,000,000 to this purpose, Dr. T. B. Ray, associate secretary of the Foreign Mission Board, has notified Dr. L. R. Scarborough, general director.

The South Brazil Mission leads the list of mission fields with $450,000, while the North Brazil Mission, not nearly so strong, has pledged $235,000 or $35,000 more than it was asked for. The South China Mission has assumed $175,000, while the other two Chinese missions and those of Japan, Argentina, Chile, Mexico, Italy and Bohemia are definitely organizing for their part in the campaign.

With such responses on the foreign fields, Drs. Scarborough and Ray believe the home people will rally to the campaign as they have never done before.
